1. Legal Background

Equality Act (2010)

This Act unifies, supersedes or updates much of the previous law relating to equality.

Schools are now required to ensure that pupils are protected from discrimination and harassment based on 'protected characteristics' which are:

- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Gender
- Sexual orientation

Schools are prohibited from discriminating against, harassing or victimising:

- Prospective pupils
- Pupils at the school
- In some limited circumstances, former pupils

2. Positive Action

The Act contains provisions which enable schools to take proportionate action to tackle particular disadvantage, different needs or disproportionately low participation of a particular group. This is not the same as positive discrimination, which means providing preferential treatment that exceeds positive action conditions. However, in the case of disabled pupils, it is never unlawful to positively discriminate in their favour.

The Act establishes three principles intended to focus on outcomes judged against local rather than imposed priorities:

- Setting of equality objectives based on local data;
- Schools to be judged on outcomes related to their identified equality objectives not on processes or action plans;
- Greater transparency in allowing public access to data.

The 2010 Equality Act also enshrines existing duties already established in law as follows:

- Disability General Duty
- Gender General Duty

- Race General Duty
  - Community Cohesion Duty
  - Sexual Orientation

3. Raedwald Trust Vision and Values

At the Raedwald Trust, we are committed to ensuring equality of education and opportunity for all pupils, staff, parents and guardians receiving services from the individual academy settings, irrespective of race, gender, disability, faith or religion or socio-economic background. We aim to develop a culture of inclusion and diversity in which all those connected to each setting feel proud of their identity, able to participate fully in school life and feel valued, cared for and listened to. The development of a positive self-image, self-advocacy, respect for others and an awareness of the value of each individual's contribution to the academy community is an integral part of our ethos.

The achievement of pupils will be monitored by race, gender and disability and we will use this data to support pupils, raise standards and ensure inclusive teaching. We will tackle discrimination by the positive promotion of equality, challenging bullying and stereotypes and creating an environment which champions respect for all. We believe that diversity is a strength, which should be respected and celebrated by all those who learn, teach and visit here.

4. Equality in Policy and Practice

The different academy settings operates equality of opportunity in day to day practice in the following ways:

Teaching and Learning

We aim to provide all our pupils with the opportunity to succeed, and to reach the highest level of personal achievement. To do this, we:

- Provide a curriculum that is accessible and relevant to the needs of each individual pupil through a range of activities, technologies and opportunities which ensure that learning is fun
- Use whatever specialist techniques and teaching approaches which may motivate support the needs, or improve access of any individual pupil.
- Ensure pupils have the time needed for them to acquire, develop, practise and apply skills.
- Use contextual data to improve the ways in which we provide support to individuals and groups of pupils;
- Monitor achievement data by ethnicity, gender and disability and take action to address any gaps;

- Take account of the achievement of all pupils when planning for future learning and setting challenging targets;
  - Ensure equality of access for all pupils and prepare them for life in a diverse society;
  - Use materials and activities that reflect the diversity of the school, population and local community in terms of race, gender and disability, without stereotyping;
  - Promote attitudes and values that will challenge racist and other discriminatory behaviour or prejudice;
  - Provide opportunities for pupils to appreciate their own culture and celebrate the diversity of other cultures;
  - Ensure pastoral support takes into account religious and ethnic differences and the experiences and needs of particular groups of pupils, including refugees and asylum seekers
  - Seek to involve all parents and carers in supporting their child's education;
  - Encourage staffroom discussion of equality issues which reflect on social stereotypes, expectations and the impact on learning;
  - Ensure teaching and classroom-based approaches are appropriate to meet the individual needs of pupils
  - Challenge any behaviour (verbal or written, e.g. graffiti, literature/propaganda) that differentiates, degrades or isolates an individual or group due to race, religion, language or culture;

This includes:

- Racist comments or name calling;
- Comments about appearance;
- Rejection by colour;
- Mocking language or accent;
- Denigrating religious observances or cultural traditions.

Admissions, Behaviour and Exclusions

Our admissions arrangements are fair and transparent. Exclusions will always be based on the Trust's Behaviour Policy. Strategies are always put in place to meet the needs of any child who may be at risk of frequent sanctions or possible exclusion. We monitor behaviour management plans to avoid any potential adverse impact and ensure any discrepancies are identified and dealt with.

Equal Opportunities for Staff

We are committed to the implementation of equal opportunities principles and the monitoring and active promotion of equality in all aspects of staffing and employment.

All staff appointments and promotions are made on the basis of merit and ability and in compliance with the law. However we are concerned to ensure wherever possible that the staffing of the school reflects the diversity of our community.

Employer Duties

As an employer we need to ensure that we eliminate discrimination and harassment in our employment practice and actively promote equality across all groups within our workforce.

Equality aspects such as gender, race, disability, sexual orientation, gender re-assignment, full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity, and faith or religion are considered when appointing staff and particularly when allocating Teaching and Learning Responsibilities (TLR) or re-evaluating staff structures, to ensure decisions are free of discrimination.

Actions to ensure this commitment is met include:

- Monitoring recruitment and retention including bullying and harassment of staff;
- Continued professional development opportunities for all staff;
- Senior Leadership Team support to ensure equality of opportunity for all.

Consultation and Involvement

The Trust will strive to ensure that all parties involved input regularly on equality matters and outcomes. This will be completed via;

- Feedback from parent/teacher/SLT meetings
- Input from staff surveys or through staff meetings / Professional Development Training
- Issues raised in annual reviews
- Plans/Personalised Provision,
- Feedback at Academy Governing Body meetings.

APPENDIX – CATEGORIES OF DISCRIMINATION

The Equality Act 2010 states that there are seven categories of discrimination:

- Direct discrimination: treating a person less favourably than others in comparable circumstances because of a 'protected characteristic' such as sex, race or a disability is unlawful.
- Associative discrimination: direct discrimination against a person who associates with another person with a protected characteristic.
- Indirect discrimination: it is unlawful when a provision, criterion or practice is applied equally to all but have a different impact on a person with a protected characteristic. (NB indirect discrimination is only lawful if it can be justified for reasons unrelated to the characteristic in question).
- Victimisation: treating a person less favourably because they have taken action in respect of discrimination e.g. by bringing a complaint or giving evidence for a colleague, is unlawful.
- Harassment: unwanted conduct which violates a person's dignity or creates an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for them, on grounds of one of the relevant characteristics such as sex or race – is also unlawful in many of the situations covered by discrimination law.
- Harassment by a third party: harassment by people not employed by the school e.g. contractors.
- Discrimination by perception: discrimination against someone because others think they have a protected characteristic (even if they don't).

What is required by law in employing staff?

According to law, schools must not discriminate in the employment of staff on grounds of gender, gender reassignment, race, disability, sexual orientation (including perceived orientation), religion or belief, age, marriage and civil partnership and pregnancy and maternity.

With regard to disability, schools must make such reasonable adjustments as are necessary to prevent a disabled person being at a substantial disadvantage in comparison with people who are not disabled.

The requirement to avoid discrimination relates to recruitment, terms and conditions, promotions, transfers, dismissals, training and employment practices such as dress codes and disciplinary procedures.

What is required by law in relation to pupils?

Schools must not discriminate against children seeking admission or with regard to how pupils are treated, on grounds of sex, race, disability, religion or belief. They must not discriminate against pupils or potential pupils on the grounds of their sexual orientation or that of their parents, carers or other associates. Pupils or potential pupils must not be discriminated against on the grounds of the marital status or gender reassignment of parents, carers or other associates.

This includes discrimination in provision of teaching or allocating the pupil to certain classes, applying different standards of behaviour, dress and appearance, excluding pupils or subjecting them to any other detriment, and conferring benefits, facilities or services.

With regard to disability, schools must make such reasonable adjustments as are necessary to prevent disabled pupils being at a substantial disadvantage in comparison with people who are not disabled, even if it means treating them more favourably.

Age discrimination legislation does not apply to the treatment of pupils or the delivery of education.
