WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

The Refocus Project is a KS3/KS4 pastoral and academic programme designed to refocus pupils whilst encouraging positive life choices.

Running throughout the Summer term 2020, this 12 week programme is designed to refocus and re-engage Year 9 & Year 10 pupils who are at risk of permanent exclusion and/or offending behaviour.

Included in the programme is:

- KS3/KS4 English & maths (GCSE/FS)
- Careers & post-16 pathway support
- Bespoke PSHE programme which includes substance misuse, gangs and joint enterprise, exploitation, healthy relationships and radicalisation
- Wellbeing workshops (for parents & pupils)
 - Workplace visits
 - Enrichment opportunities
 - Guest speakers
 - Mentoring programme

The programme targets specific challenges faced by young people whilst focusing on how to make positive life choices in order to improve life chances both in school and the

Profile of pupil: Year 9 or 10 / two or more fixed term exclusions this academic year / at risk of permanent exclusion / at risk of exploitation and/or offending behavior / poor attendance
