

Teacher – Outreach Teaching Service

Raedwald Trust

Start date: ASAP

Salary MPR/UPR and lower SEN allowance

Full time or Part time

Permanent

We are looking to recruit a Teacher to work in Outreach Teaching Service. With a number of bases in the Ipswich area but working across Suffolk, in particular to meet the growing demand in the Lowestoft area. The successful post holder will work within the wider Raedwald Trust Outreach Teaching Service and be committed to improving the outcomes for pupils for whom education to date has been far from straight forward. As part of the ongoing development of our service, we are seeking a qualified, engaging and experienced teacher with a strong commitment to social inclusion and improving learning outcomes for vulnerable children.

You will be an outstanding classroom practitioner who consistently demonstrates the highest standards of delivery, is fully committed to raising attainment across all key stages and acutely aware of the strategies required to achieve the highest standards within your subject area.

You will be a teacher who has previous experience teaching pupils with SEN and ideally SEMH.

We can offer you the opportunity to be part of a highly effective learning team and continued professional development.

You will be required:

- To promote the ethos and values of the Trust
- To act as a role model for both students and staff.
- To deliver lessons which are tailored to suit and meet the needs of each student, using varied and creative means to facilitate learning.
- To assess and record students' progress and provide quality feedback to support their improvement
- To prepare and maintain accurate records, using school systems and established procedures/protocols

- To contribute to progress reports to parents and carers.
- To attend consultation sessions with parents and carers, providing quality information about students' academic, personal, social and emotional progress.
- To collaborate and liaise with the Trust's Pastoral Managers and SENCos. to ensure a 'joined up' approach to students' academic and pastoral experience.
- To contribute to the development of an appropriate curriculum within the Trust's curriculum policy and the National Curriculum.
- To liaise with colleagues and the Senior Leadership Team in order to monitor and develop curriculum in line with local needs and needs of students.
- To be responsible for the planning and production of schemes of work within the guidelines of National Curriculum.
- To attend Teaching and Learning and staff meetings within directed time.
- To maintain a tidy and orderly classroom which provides a safe, nurturing environment and promotes active learning.

You will be required to be mobile around all the Raedwald Trust sites and travel to/from partnership schools. This ranges from Ipswich to Lowestoft.

Access to personal transport is essential.

Visits from potential applicants are welcomed. Please contact Laura Leeder, Trust PA (email: lleder@raedwaldtrust.org, tel: 01473 550472) if you would like to arrange a visit or would like an application pack.

Please note we cannot accept CVs.

Closing date: Monday 18th October 2021 at 12pm

Interview date: w/c Monday 18th October 2021 (please note you may be called to interview before the closing date)

Please return completed application forms to Laura Leeder via email:
lleder@raedwaldtrust.org

Appointment of the successful candidates will be subject to a DBS check. This is as stated in the Academy's Safeguarding Policy to show commitment to safeguarding and promotion of welfare of children.
