WHAT'S IT ABOUT?

The Refocus Project is a KS4 pastoral and academic programme designed to refocus pupils whilst encouraging positive life choices.

A termly small group academic & pastoral programme which runs alongside mainstream education, designed to support Year 11 pupils who are at risk of underachieving and/or permanent exclusion due to social and emotional dysregulation (SEMH) but presents as challenging behaviour (defiant, disruptive, poor attendance/truanting).

Included in the programme is:

- Two full days per week (10 hours in total) of support at a Raedwald Trust site in Ipswich and Bury St Edmunds
 - Additional enrichment and Arts day available
 - GCSE/Functional Skills English & maths
 - Careers & post-16 pathway support
 - Bespoke PSHE programme which includes mental health awareness, building self-esteem, exam stress, online safety, healthy relationships, transitions, exploitation and radicalisation
 - Wellbeing workshops
 - Workplace visits
 - Enrichment opportunities

The programme targets specific challenges faced by young people whilst focusing on how to make positive life choices in order to improve life chances both in school and the community.

Profile of pupil: Year 11 / two or more fixed term exclusions this academic year / at risk of permanent exclusion / at risk of exploitation and/or offending behaviour.
