

Raedwald Trust Uniform Policy

Uniform with purpose

A navy sweatshirt and polo top will be provided for you to wear. You will be able to keep these when you leave.

Your trousers, skirts, shorts and tracksuit bottoms should be black. These will need to be suitable for PE. Skirts and shorts should be of a sensible length. You can wear your trousers from your home school so long as they are black/charcoal.

Your shoes should be mainly black, have a low heel and be suitable for PE. You can wear your shoes from your home school.

Raedwald Trust Uniform Policy

Uniform with purpose

At your Raedwald Trust setting, you will be required to wear:

A navy sweatshirt and polo top. These will be provided for you to wear. You will be able to keep these when you leave.

Your trousers, skirts, shorts and tracksuit bottoms should be black. These will need to be suitable for PE. Skirts and shorts should be of a sensible length. You can wear your trousers from your home school so long as they are black/charcoal.

Your shoes should be black, have a low heel and be suitable for PE. You can wear your shoes from your home school.

If you arrive in the wrong uniform:

A temporary uniform will be provided for you in the event that you are wearing the incorrect uniform.

Failure to arrive to school in the correct uniform consistently over a period of two weeks will result in a meeting between Raedwald Trust staff and your parents/carers/guardians.

Support can be provided in order to purchase items needed.

If you refuse to wear the temporary uniform (or change at home), you will be taken home with a work pack to complete or taken to another Raedwald Trust site to work.
